CODE OF CONDUCT

Code of Conduct for the Cheshire Pool Association (herein referred to as CPA) and any associated events organised by the CPA.

Players who affiliate to the English Pool Association via the CPA are subject to its Code of Conduct and should be mindful that an infringement of this Code of Conduct could result in disciplinary action from the CPA, subject to a majority vote by CPA Executive Committee.

1. No player shall subject another player to verbal abuse, before the commencement of a game, during a game, or after a game on that same evening or day.
2. No player shall use foul language before, during or after a game.
3. Any player who verbally abuses another player outside a normal county event in relation to an incident which took place at a county event (this to include county, interleague or any competition where a player is representing the county or playing in a county run event) can be reported to the committee who can request that player to explain matters relating to the abuse, to a disciplinary committee and may be subject to a fine and/or ban.
4. Any player who threatens physical violence to another player, be it an opposing player or a player from their own team will be deemed to be in breach of the Code of Conduct and will be summoned to a disciplinary hearing before the CPA committee and could be fined and/or banned (sine die) for life.
5. Any player who threatens physical violence to a spectator, licensee, CPA official or anyone in the employ of the licensee will be deemed in breach of the Code of Conduct and will be summoned to a disciplinary hearing before the CPA and could be fined and/or banned (sine die) for life.
6. Any player who strikes another player in a malicious manner with any part of his/her body or with any instrument or missile will be deemed in breach of the Code of Conduct and will be summoned to a disciplinary hearing before the CPA committee and could be fined and/or banned (sine die) for life.
7. Any player who strikes a spectator, licensee, pool official, or anyone in the employ of the licensee, with any part of his/her body or with any instrument or missile will be deemed in breach of the Code of Conduct and will be summoned to a disciplinary hearing before the CPA committee and could be fined and/or banned (sine die) for life.
